A special car from Columbia and Orangeburg will come in late this afternoon, and an effort was being made late last night to work up a special car from Sumter and Florence. Inquiry made at the Information Bureau at the Chamber of Commerce late last night, the office being open till 11 was that no reliable estimate as to the number of delegates was obtainable. Provision has now been made for more than 700 delegates, the largest in the history of the city, exceeding the Sunday school convention more than 200. Emergency provisions are also being made at the Y. M. C. A. and elsewhere, and still provision cannot be made. An effort will be made to recruit rooms at Anderson College and the Frazer Fitting School dormitories.

The tent was placed yesterday and platform completed late yesterday afternoon. The first rehearsal under the tent of the combined male and female choir was held yesterday at 7 p. m. under the management of Miss J. Welch, chairman of the music committee.

THE SONS RAISED SUFFICIENT SUM

Secured Good Amount From Organization For Entertaining
Young Ladies Here

A committee headed by Capt. William Laughlin and representing Cam W. W. Humphries of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, spent yesterday canvassing Anderson for the purpose of raising a fund with which to entertain the ladies of honor, the sponsors and the other young lady visitors to Anderson during the Confederate reunion. In the canvass yesterday the committee visited only members of the Sons of Veterans and all told a sum of $25 or possibly slightly more was raised for the purpose stated.

The sons felt that they have a right to be proud of even this sum and it will be quite sufficient, according to those in a position to know, to take care of the young ladies here for the reunion. Of course this fund will go to defraying none of the usual expenses, it will be devoted entirely to showing the charming guests of the city all of Anderson's points of interest and will supply them with bouquets, etc., during their stay here.

The thanks of all the Sons are due Capt. Laughlin and the remainder of the committee for the splendid work done yesterday.

FIRST DELEGATE IS IN THE CITY

J. E. Doolittle of Edgefield Has Arrived and Is Anticipating Reunion Day of Reunion

The first delegate to arrive in Anderson for the Confederate Reunion which will convene tomorrow morning was J. E. Doolittle of Edgefield. Mr. Doolittle arrived in the city yesterday morning and had dinner at the hotel. He had been here for thirty minutes. The veteran feels that he would probably prefer to arrive here a few hours ahead of time to get a good look at the city and for that reason he determined to come early.

COME BY SECRETARY WHITLEY OF THE ANDERSON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WHEN HE ARRIVED IN THE CITY AND THROUGHOUT YESTERDAY HE WAS SHOWN EVERY POSSIBLE ATTENTION BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY.

Mr. Doolittle commented upon the numerous decorations around the business houses of the city in honor of the reunion and said that it made him feel elated to see that the people of this community take so much interest in the reunion.

Mr. Doolittle was lodged at the Bellevue hotel and he expects to enjoy every minute of his stay in the city.

LAUGHED AT THE STEEL BRACELETS

Two Negroes Walked Away From Anderson Officers, Both With Handcuffs On

Anderson people are familiar with the saying that "love laughs at lock-ups" but there is nothing on record to show any relationship between upland and two big black burly negroes yesterday night Anderson county officials received information that a "crap" game was going on between a number of negroes near the Orr Mill and the officers set out for the scene. When they arrived they caught the party red-handed and proceeded to round them up, putting handcuffs on the whole bunch, locking each negro's wrist to the wrist of another of the party.

While this operation was going on one of the officers chanced to look around and discovered that Manley Burns and Frank Williams, two of the first to be handcuffed, had strolled away from the scene of activity and so far as is known they are still "strolling."

The negroes, notwithstanding the fact that they were locked together, seem to have made a complete getaway and they left no trail.

The remainder of the party reached the city in safety and were lodged in the county jail.

The Elks' Special.

Mr. Allen stated that his road in preparing to handle a special train of Elks on account of the annual state convention to be held in this city, here will be 125 Elks from Greenville many of whom will come over to spend the day and will return on the late train at night and come back tomorrow. There will probably be a special rate of $1.25. It is expected that at Spartanburg Elks will come over on this train and the Gateway Lodge may also come via the Interurban. This Greenville lodge will bring a brass band and the Spartanburg lodge will also have some brass band. The Columbia lodge is making a special rate of $1.00 from the day country in connection with the lodge from Charleston, Greenville, Florence and other points.

The Columbia lodge will have a brass band and some of the other lodges will come in great force.

JESUS THE SOLUTION OF LIFE'S PROBLEMS

BRILLIANT SERMON TO THE FITTING SCHOOL

BY MR. WALLACE

Frazer Boys Hear Able Speaker Tell Them of Wondrous Fitting School of Christ

At the First Presbyterian Church Sunday the baccalaureate sermon before the Frazer Fitting School was preached by the Rev. J. E. Wallace, of Westminster. It was a most eloquent discourse in which Jesus as the Christ was offered as the solution of life's problems. The sermon was widely commented upon as being especially appropriate. The following is a brief synopsis of what was said.

Text, Matt. XI:29. "Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly at heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls." Subject: The fitting school of Christ. These verses are an invitation from the headmaster of the greatest fitting school in the universe to come to him and learn the greatest lessons of life. Christ's servant is to be also a disciple learner. His school for them is his yoke. He is the master artist of life and we must be apprenticed to him and learn to live as he does. We can never get the most out of life nor put the most into life, until we have learned some lessons from the yoke.

The first is the lesson of service. The yoke means service, and no man can become truly great without it. "Whosoever will be great among you let him be chief among you; and whosoever will be first among you let him be your servant." We will learn the why of service. We can never learn why we should give our lives to the service of Christ and man, when it is not appreciated and when the world offers so much for it until we learn it from Christ's service to us at such a great sacrifice.

We will learn the how of Christian service, many willing workers are failed because they are unprepared. The only school to fit us to be proficient servants is the school of apprenticeship under the yoke of actual experience with Jesus. We will learn also the joy this earth affords to be found in the service of our fellowmen for Christ's sake.

We learn, secondly, the lesson of character. If there is anything greater than what we do it is what we are. Our character, Jesus is supremely fitted to teach us character because he possesses it. He is "meek and lowly in heart" which is the climax of all true character. We learn character by association. Our lives are fashioned after them with whom we live most closely. If Jesus is our constant companion, our like fellow, we will learn to be like him. We can never become truly great, with ever so much service, unless it is adorned with humility. We learn the third lesson which is contentment or rest. "Ye shall find rest unto your souls." This is an age of unrest, social, political and spiritual. It offers labor in which we become the world knows nothing of true rest. Heavy laden with care. Only Jesus offers rest. He does not offer a bodily rest, for he calls to service, "out and to your souls" freedom from anxiety. Our business is to bear his yoke, his business is to bear all the responsibility. We can never rise to the highest in service and character if we are weighed down with daily cares and clothes. After all these things do the fustles seek. We are to seek God's kingdom first and trust him to take these things to us. In conclusion, "We have been taught by the world to look upon Christ's yoke as a burden, and as a hindrance to the broadest freedom. But entering this school we enter 'the glorious liberty of the sons of God,' and find that instead of bringing us into a narrow life it is the gateway to more abundant life. Instead of being a burden to carry and hold us down, it is transforming into wings by which we may rise above earth's sordid cares into a higher life of service of character and of contentment or rest. In this school alone, can we be prepared for the highest life on earth and for eternal life in the world to come. The text is the school belt of the great university of God that has been ringing with clear tones all down the ages, calling all weary restless souls to come and learn from his life's lessons from his yoke. For his yoke is easy and his burden is light."

CLUB ROLLS ARE MISPLACED

And Secretary Rob King Calls Upon Ward Five Citizens

Register at Once

The club roll of Ward 5 is missing, as the former secretary has moved out of the state, and the new secretary, Mr. Rob King, calls attention to this fact. He will at once start a new roll, and calls upon the residents of the ward to notify him as once of their names and residences so that they may be enrolled for the approaching primary.

The former secretary of Ward 5, who is now in the city, has been asked to return the roll to the club.

roll may be necessary. As to this we do not know.

All of the club rolls will have to be revised and we suggest that the primaries and we suggest that the work in the city wards be started at once so that everything may be put in good order. Mr. King will have the club roll for Ward Five in the office of the Chiquila hotel at all hours of the day, and if any number of citizens at some point remote from Main street will notify him, he will take the registration book to any point they may suggest, and at any hour they may suggest.

SERMON SUNDAY WAS A MAGNIFICENT EFFORT

DR. ALDERMAN SPOKE SUNDAY AT COLLEGE

PROGRAM ENJOYED

Spartanburg Man Had a Wonderful Impression Upon Young Ladies of Y. W. A. Here

There were many events during the closing exercises of Anderson college worthy of note and there will be more during the years to come but there is no possibility of securing a more splendid speaker, a more fluent talker or a more charming man for the sermon to the Y. W. A. at Anderson college than Dr. E. S. Alderman proved himself to be last Sunday. He made an impression upon his audience and this impression will be lasting.

The music furnished for the occasion was another decided treat and every person present at the college Sunday felt richer by reason of his or her presence in the auditorium.

The following is the order of the program:

Organ— "Andante Grazioso"—Smart.
Doxology.
Invocation.
Hymn—Tune 4.
Scripture Reading.
Cello Solo—"Moderato" in G—Mozart, Herr E. Graul.
Prayer.
Hymn—Tune 311.
Cello Solo—"Ave Maria"—Schubert—Herr E. Graul.
Offertory Prayer.

Postlude—Figure in D—Bach.
Dr. Alderman chose as his subject "Christ, The Center of All Things," and he gave his hearers a very comprehensive survey of his opinions. From an historical standpoint Christ was shown to be the Power behind all our advancement and growth. The speaker showed that this was applicable to all the arts, literature, music, and masterpieces of various kinds. The speaker closed his remarks with an appeal to the graduates that they so direct their lives and so run their course that they could say that they had fulfilled the designs of the All-Wise Creator in the painting of the picture of life, in the rendition of the song of life and in the writing of the great book of all books, the record of a life.

It was a strong effort and every man and woman in the audience must have felt a better influence as a result of Dr. Alderman's splendid sermon.

WATCH ANDERSON GROWING GREATER

Two More Citizens Added Yesterday to Ever-Increasing Population of the City

Anderson grows greater day by day and there can be no mistake about that. Yesterday witnessed two citizens and their families added to Anderson's ever-increasing population, and these two men will probably be responsible for several more people coming to the city. Mr. R. R. Rutledge of Charleston, a well known real estate and investment man of that city has decided to come to Anderson and locate and will arrange to move here within the next few days. He will engage in general real estate and insurance business.

John Craft, who has been steadily boosting Anderson for some months in Baltimore, where he has been taking a special course in a piano and organ tuning establishment, has returned to the city and announces that he will probably cast his lot here.

Anderson is richer today by two citizens than she was yesterday and this is but the tale of every day here. Hardly a day passes in Anderson without new families coming in and the best part about the whole thing is that the influx bears none of the earmarks of a boom. It is the steady and continuous growth.

CITY BATHED IN BEAUTIFUL LIGHT

"White Way" Seen Last Night In Anderson For First Time At the Stroke of Ten

Just as the city clock struck 10 last night Manager Harry Orr of the Southern Public Utilities Company threw the switch which illuminated Anderson's great white way and the city sprang into light as though by magic. The arc lights on the business streets had been turned out and the contrast between the old system of lighting and the new was truly remarkable. Instead of the hard and glaring lights of the arc, the streets were bathed in the mellow glow of the white way almost as pretty as moonlight and Anderson's business district presented a prettier appearance than it ever had before.

The public was charmed and the public was delighted and the public did not hesitate to speak in the highest terms of the wonderful transformation wrought by the new system.

approval of the change and Anderson is proud of it. This is another step in which some attention to the club

J. H. GODFREY ENTERS RACE

Friends Authorize the Announcement That He Will Make the Campaign for Mayor

Friends of J. Harrington Godfrey last night authorized the Intelligence to publish the announcement that he would be a candidate for mayor and that his platform would be announced later. Mr. Godfrey is the city clerk, city editor of the Daily Mail and secretary of the local lodge of Elks and a member of other fraternal orders and social clubs.

Mr. Godfrey is a native of Cheraw, and came to this city to engage in the newspaper business and later he became city clerk, a position which he has filled with ability and skill. Just what his platform will be remains to be seen.

There are three other well known citizens in the race for mayor and the entries do not close for several days. Those at present announced are J. M. Payne, for many years an elderman and later county treasurer, R. E. Elmore, at present a member of the board of health, and Dr. W. F. Ashmore, the chairman of the board of health.

It is stated that W. L. Bracy will permit his name to be used. Some of the friends of Mr. Bracy came to this office and authorized this publication. Mr. Bracy would be a candidate in the race for mayor and would be a member of the local lodge of Elks and a member of other fraternal orders and social clubs.

The new entrant, Mr. Godfrey, has strong political backing and will no doubt make a hustling campaign. He has once an officer in the local military company and is generally popular with the young men.

MRS. JULIA BURNISS

Died Monday Night After a Long Ill-

Mrs. Julia Burniss, wife of Mr. Lawrence Burniss of Shiloh, died Monday night. The funeral services will be held at Mountain Creek church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Burniss had been ill for some time and had been at home from the hospital but a week.
